

[practice word given at the end of pdf]

Fragment

→ Sentence is subject/verb missing ~~or~~ or fragment mistake.

~~QNTA~~ -

i) Telephone.

[verb missing]

correct: Telephone rings.

ii) Explain.

[verb ~~is~~, subject missing]

correct: Darren explain.

iii) Scrubbling ~~in~~ notes in class.

[verb ~~is~~, subject missing]

correct: He is ~~scrub~~ scrubbing notes in class.

iv) When the dentist began drilling.

[This is not a full sentence. Because we want to know what happened after that] correct: When the dentist began drilling, I closed my eyes.

Rule - 1

after, though, even though, which, while, whose etc word ~~are~~ ~~sent~~ ~~the~~ sentence is not complete. So, if the word ~~are~~ sentence is not complete part missing ~~are~~, then we have to finish fragment problem and we have to finish that sentence or, connect it with the ~~next~~ ~~or~~ sentence.

Example:

① After I stopped drinking coffee.

[We want to know what happens after that. It is an incomplete sentence]

→ After I stopped drinking coffee, I started sleeping better at night.

② Brian sat nervously in the dental clinic. while waiting to have his wisdom tooth pulled.

[The underlined sentence doesn't make sense. We want to know more. So we can connect it with the previous sentence]

→ Brian sat nervously in the dental clinic while waiting to have his wisdom tooth pulled.

① When the waitress coughed in his food. Frank lost his appetite. He didn't even take home a doggy bag.

⇒ When the waitress coughed in his food, Frank lost his appetite. He-----

② Our power went out. During a thunderstorm. I lost the paper I was writing on the computer.

⇒ Our power went out during a thunderstorm. I lost....

③ After the mail carrier comes, I run to ~~the~~ our mailbox. ~~I~~ I love to get mail. Even if it is only a junk mail.

⇒ After the mail carrier comes, I run to our mailbox. I love to get mail, even if it is a junk mail.

[connected "after" ~~the~~ sentence with a comma to the next sentence.
connected "even if" ~~the~~ sentence with a comma to the previous sentence]

Rule-2

-ing word/phrase underlined situation
how to fix them?

Let's see examples.

- ① I spent all day in the employment office. Trying to find a job that suited me.

The sentence doesn't express full idea. So, we can fix it by connecting it with the previous sentence using a comma.

→ I spent all day in the employment office, trying to find a job that suited me.

- ② Daniella surprised Brian on the nature hike. Picking blobs of resin off pine trees.

Again, doesn't express full idea. So, we can change the ~~word~~-ing word, and adjust it with the tense of the sentence, making a new sentence.

→ She picked blobs of resin off pine trees.

Rule-3

to - ^{if sentence go start →} ^{ଅମଳ ଗୁରୁ} sentence, ^{କିପାଇଁ} correct ^{କରିବା}?

① To remind people of their selfishness,
Otis leaves handwritten notes on cars that take up two parking spaces.

~~→ To~~ [connect it with a comma
to the next sentence]

⇒ To remind people of their selfishness,
Otis leaves.

Rule-4

also, especially, except, including, especially,
for example, such as - ~~the~~ word ^{ଅମଳ}
sentence ~~is~~ sometimes subject or verb ~~is~~ missing ^{ଅମଳ}! That is a fragment mistake.

How to fix them -

① Tony has trouble accepting criticism.
Except from Lola.

⇒ [underlined sentence is missing verb and doesn't make sense. So, attach it to the previous sentence with comma]

⇒ Tony has trouble accepting criticism, except ~~accept~~ from Lola.

② May ~~app~~ apartment has its drawbacks.
For example, no hot water in the morning.

[subject missing. Add a subject]

⇒ ~~My~~ For example, there is no hot water in the morning.

③ I had many ~~jobs~~ jobs while in school. Among them, busboy, painter and security guard.

[connect with the previous sentence and change it to a list]

⇒ I had many jobs while in school.
A few among them was being a busboy, painter and security guard.

Rule-5

Underlined sentence is subject missing
ଆବଶ୍ୟକୀୟ ଶବ୍ଦ। ଉଦାହରଣ sentence
ଗାଡ଼ି, ସୂଚକ, subject add କରା ଥାଏ

④ Jack tripped on his shoelace. Then looked around to see if anyone had noticed.

⇒ Then he looked around to see if anyone had noticed.

1. Before I log off from the computer

2. Even though I cheated

3. Although my parents never went to college

4. The pills that the doctor prescribed

5. If I remember correctly

1. When the waitress coughed in his food. Frank lost his appetite. He didn't even take home a doggy bag.

2. Our power went out. During a thunderstorm. I lost the paper I was writing on the computer.

3. Tony doesn't like going to the ballpark. If he misses an exciting play. There's no instant replay.

1. Some workers dug up the street near our house. Causing frequent vibrations inside. By evening, all the pictures on our walls were crooked.

2. I had heard about the surprise party for me. I therefore walked slowly into the darkened living room. Preparing to look shocked.

3. Dribbling skillfully up the court. Luis looked for a teammate who was open. Then he passed the ball.

4. As I was dreaming of a sunny day at the beach, the alarm clock rang. Wanting to finish the dream. I pushed the Snooze button.

5. To get back my term paper. I went to see my English instructor from last semester. I also wanted some career advice.

1. Desmond looked anxiously at his cell phone. Waiting for his supervisor to return his call. He needed to call in sick to work.

(Add the -ing fragment to the preceding sentence.)

2. Using one of the computers at the library. Hari could not access several Web sites, which he later learned were blocked.

(Add the fragment to the sentence that comes after it.)

3. A virus infected my computer. As a result, destroying data.

(Add the subject it and change the verb destroying to the correct form, destroyed.)

EXAMPLE

My husband and I share the household chores. Including meals. I do the cooking and he does the eating.

(Add the fragment to the preceding sentence.)

My husband and I share the household chores, including meals.

1. Denise puts things off until the last minute. For example, waiting until the night before a test to begin studying.

(Add the subject she and change waiting to the proper form of the verb, waits.)

2. My eleventh-grade English teacher picked on everybody. Except the athletes. They could do no wrong.

(Add the fragment to the preceding sentence.)

3. Bernardo always buys things out of season. For example, an air conditioner in December. He saves a lot of money this way.

(Add the subject and verb he bought.)
